

SC09 Vision and Preparation, Info for FNAL attendees

SuperComputing 2009, Portland, Oregon 11/14 – 11/20

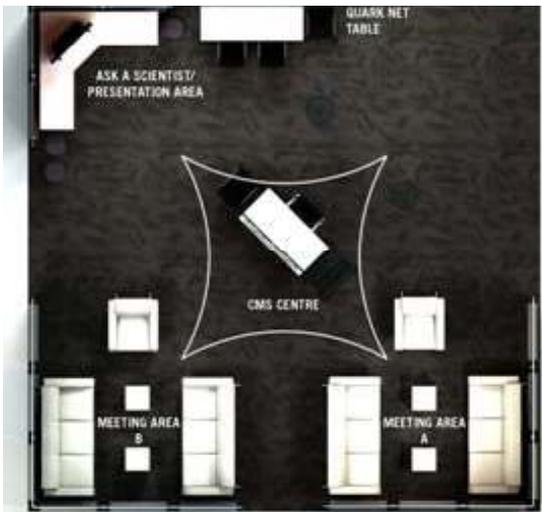

SC09 team: A. Heavey, D. Ritchie, J. Urish, 10/8/09

Objectives for SC09

- Build and nurture relationships with funding agency representatives, vendors, computing/scientific people from universities and other national labs, and interested public.
- Foster an interest, respect and appreciation for Fermilab's computing and scientific work among same groups as above, and highlight the role the Computing Division plays in Fermilab's mission.
- Encourage collaborative relationships between Fermilab and other research institutions.

Objectives of Presentation

- Describe vision and plan for FNAL's SC09 presence
- Encourage you to clarify your goals at SC09
- Encourage you to identify people to meet with
- Encourage you to set up meetings with these people in advance (starting NOW)
- Encourage you to enlist our help – Click below to see detail:

Fermilab CD SC09

Vision and plan

- Please read the August '09 CD Tracks article What SuperComputing can do for you. What you can do for SuperComputing
- Nutshell:
  - Booth will be a meeting place
  - Plan to meet with people who can help you advance your project's work, or whom you can help
  - Booth will feature: meeting rooms, CMS mini-ROC, remote ask-a-scientist, video meeting facility, education display, graphics panels depicting themes
  - Principal themes: data analysis, data transfer, simulation, networking, storage (and collaboration)

Clarify your goals

- Recent activity in setting goals for 2009-10 in Tactical Plans: use that to help you determine your project's objectives for attending SC09.
- What information, collaborative relationships, funding opportunities and/or better hw/sw pricing do you want to come home with?

Who can help you achieve your goals?

- Existing and potential collaborators at other institutions
- Leaders and peers at other institutions and companies involved in development of similar technologies
- Funding agency representatives
- Hw/Sw vendors

Identify these people and contact them SOON

- Some of these people you already know.
- We can help you identify people at other labs and institutions you might not know.
- Do you want to set up a “Birds of a feather” session on a topic? We can help identify and contact the birds of your feather.
- We can schedule group sessions, one-on-one meetings, or office hours for you.

Now is the time...

- Consult the address below to figure out which talks you will attend:
